The rental agreement, general terms and house rules signed by you (main tenant) continue to apply. You are completely responsible, also for any damage or rent arrears that may occur during the period of sublease. You are not allowed to request a higher rent to subtenant than the rent you owe to SSH&. Of course you can charge reasonable fees for the use of your furniture and goods.

At the end of the sublease period the subtenant is obliged to remove his possessions. The room is fully available for you again. Under no circumstances does sublease lead to main tenancy. Unless your property has 'coöptatierecht', then your flatmates can nominate your subtenant for the room. Also your subtenant s cannot claim any other room from SSH&. He/she can, of course, respond to our available rooms.

You are required to provide valid proof of study within one month after returning. If you do not or cannot do this, you must leave your room within six months after the end of the sublease.
